It's Not About the Book, It's About the Obedience

When Julie Castro published the book she was instructed to write in January 2015, she had visions of grandeur, selling thousands of books in the first year. She thought she knew exactly what God was going to do and how He was going to do it. God had other plans.

The mind of man plans his way, But the LORD directs his steps.

Proverbs 16:9 (NASB)

“The book was birthed out of obedience which opened unexpected doors for me. I don't strive to market or sell the book; my actions are based on God's prompting, wholly trusting Him for the purpose for which He asked me to write and market it. It turns out it by following His instructions, ministry doors began to open,” Julie states.

Within the first few months, she was asked to minister at a small congregation. Julie was already assisting with the women's ministry in her local church where she was responsible for minor tasks. Her obedience and faithfulness with the small things led to her appointment as the women's ministry director in due season. At the same time, a door opened to minister in the Dominican Republic.

Julie's continued obedience has presented other opportunities including ministering at other local churches, serving other ministries and praying for the Body of Christ. She has a heart to pray and is honored to minister to children and adults through individual and corporate prayer wherever she goes.

Being unconventional in her walk with Jesus, Julie does not limit how the Lord wants to use her and the messages she shares. She passionately pursues Jesus and her relentless fire for the Holy Word of God is leading her toward her destiny as doors continue to open.
